

Name _____

Hawaiian Eyes Match-Up

Directions: Open your eyes to more of Hawaii's history, culture, and language by matching the terms in Column A with the correct definition in Column B.

COLUMN A

Liliuokalani

James Cook

Honolulu

lava

poi tapa

Pele

tsunami

aloha petroglyphs

mele

Kilauea

COLUMN B

- rhythmic chants, which accompany hula, to tell stories

- a greeting used for both "hello" and "goodbye"

- symbols and images carved or etched into stone by ancient Polynesians in Hawaii

- one of the world's most active volcanoes

- English navigator who explored lands in the Pacific Ocean

- capital city of Hawaii, located on Oahu

- a traditional food made from pounded taro root

- the last Queen of Hawaii

- molten rock from volcanic eruptions

- clothing made from tree bark

- a great tidal wave caused by an earthquake

- Hawaiian goddess of fire

Hawaiian Eyes Match-Up Answer Key

TERM

DEFINITION

Liliuokalani.....• the last Queen of Hawaii

James Cook.....• English navigator who explored lands in the Pacific Ocean

Honolulu.....• capital city of Hawaii, located on Oahu lava.....• molten rock from volcanic eruptions poi• a traditional food made from pounded taro root tapa.....• clothing made from tree bark

Pele.....• Hawaiian goddess of fire tsunami.....• a great tidal wave caused by an earthquake aloha.....• a greeting used for both “hello” and “goodbye” petroglyphs.....• symbols and images carved or etched into stone by ancient Polynesians in Hawaii

mele.....• rhythmic chants, which accompany hula, to tell stories

Kilauea.....• one of the world’s most active volcanoes

