Learn about CHARACTER EDUCATION with Dr. Seuss!

“A person’s a person, no matter how small.”
—Horton Hears a Who!
Horton Hears a Who!

Stand Up and Be Heard!

Horton Hears a Who! teaches the lesson “A person’s a person, no matter how small!” and that every voice counts. Ask the kids what kinds of things they have done to help their family, school, community, or selves. How did it make them feel? (For younger children, you can just ask what nice or kind things they have done.)

- Stand up for someone?
- Stand up for something they believe in?
- Recycle and help the environment?
- Stay true to themselves?
- Volunteer in the community?

DID THEY:

- They’ve proved they ARE persons, no matter how small. And their whole world was saved by the Smallest of All.

---

Daisy-Head Mayzie

What Makes YOU Unique?

In each petal of the daisy below, write a word that describes you! For example: funny, tall, and freckly. Then write down a special talent you have! Share your descriptions with your classmates. Did any two people have the same answers? Discuss what it means to be unique.

My special talent is

---

The Sneetches and Other Stories

What Was I Scared Of?

After reading “What Was I Scared Of?” write down why you think he was afraid of the pale green pants with nobody inside them. Then share a story about how something scary happened to you. What were you afraid of? How did you learn to overcome your fear? Share with a partner to learn more about bravery!