

MAGIC TREE HOUSE®

Name _____

IT'S A FACT, JACK!

Directions: Cut the cards out and then decide if each sentence is a fact or an opinion. Glue each card into the appropriate column on the next page.

A glacier is a gigantic mass of slowly moving ice.

The third-class tickets for the Titanic were cheap.

The life jackets on the Titanic were called lifebelts.

Boilers are tanks where water is heated to make steam.

The Titanic orchestra members were brave.

The swimming pool inside the Titanic was beautiful.

Safety rules said the Titanic could sail with just 16 lifeboats.

The food served in the first-class dining room was delicious.

Researchers should not be allowed to take anything from the Titanic wreckage.

The Titanic was as long as three football fields.